

Safety Skills of Future Transportation Professionals

Duration

36 months (Oct. 2016 – Oct. 2019)

Deliverables

- Training courses, Young Researchers' Seminars
- Interdisciplinary thematic courses
- Proposed Curricula European Masters in Transportation
- Trainer and trainee competences requirements
- Pilot courses (e.g. road safety)
- New business rules & scenarios in transport sector

Objectives

1. To critically review the existing, emerging and future requirements of workers at all levels in the transportation sector
2. To structure the key specifications, safety rules and components of the curricula and training courses to meet these competence requirements optimally
3. To identify and propose new business roles in the education and training chain

Impact

Quantification of the expected benefits of the training education schemes

Promotion of sustainable mobility solutions and employability

Increase knowledge on driving safety of employees

Development of appropriate skills for the future needs

Best practices, application guidelines and policy recommendations

HORIZON 2020

