Investigation of the combined transport sector and the complementary services of the logistics chain of TRAINOSE S.A. in the Athens-Thessaloniki route

Scientific Responsible
Assistant Professor Athanasios Ballis

The aim of the proposed combined railway service is to provide integrated door-to-door transport services on the Athens - Thessaloniki route, on a daily basis, at times that cover market requirements and with a pricing policy that will allow the railway to develop a profitable activity operating in addition to existing transport and logistics businesses.
